Dawes and Lowden Friends May Urge Support From Ohio

Leaders Allied With Willis Movement Say No Policy Has Been Determined Upon; Conference To Follow Rites Tuesday Afternoon

Columbus, April 2.—"Minnesota friends of agriculture are sorrowing with you and praying that Ohio Republicans will place a mountainous bouquet of votes in the bier of our loved leader and friends as a tribute to his worth," reads a telegram received today at Willis state headquarters from "the Minneapolis Council of Agriculture."

This telegram was one of numerous missives, from various parts of the country and Ohio, registering sorrow over the sudden death of U. S. Senator Frank B. Willis.

Political activities at both Willis and Hoover state headquarters were at a standstill today.

No Policy Outlined
Although Col. Carmi A. Thompson, Cleveland, who was manager of the Willis presidential campaign, Saturday night announced that the Willis forces would "carry on," leaders allied with the Willis movement here today stated that no policy has yet been determined upon to govern the activities of the Willis forces during the balance of the Ohio campaign which terminates April 24 at the statewide presidential preference primaries.

Willis candidates for delegates and alternates from Ohio to the Republican national convention, who attend the funeral services of Senator Willis at Delaware tomorrow afternoon, are scheduled to meet there after the funeral and determine upon a course of action for the rest of the pre-primary campaign.

Leaders of the Willis forces here today declined to comment upon the report that friends of Vice President Charles E. Dawes and former Gov. Frank O. Lowden, Illinois, would urge that the Willis candidates designate Dawes or Lowden as their "first choice" for the presidency.

Dawes or Lowden?
Friends of Dawes pointed out that he is "a native son" of Ohio. Ardent admirers of Lowden recalled the fact that, of the 51 Willis candidates for delegates from Ohio, 34 designated Lowden as their "second choice" for the presidency. The report also was prevalent that Dawes had stated he would not be a candidate for the presidency as long as his friend Lowden was in the race.

Leaders of the Hoover campaign in Ohio today declined to comment upon Colonel Thompson's announcement that the Willis forces will "carry on."

It was indicated that Hoover leaders will await developments before determining upon future campaign activities.

Gov. Vic Donahey, accompanied by his military staff, various state officials, and practically the entire staff at Willis and Hoover state headquarters, including former Secretary of State Thad H. Brown, managing Hoover's Ohio campaign, will attend the Willis funeral.

Officers at the statehouse will be closed tomorrow afternoon out of respect to the memory of Senator Willis.

The brother is believed to be in Canton. Chief Thompson said that he has been told there is no sister, and that Elizabeth Shreve was the mother. She is dead.

RESTORE LINES IN STORM AREA

Telephone Crews Report 17,000 Poles Pulled Down by Sleet

Cleveland, April 2.—With fair weather and rising temperature predicted by the local weather bureau, emergency telephone lines to all towns in the sleet storm area in Northwestern Ohio, effective today were promised by Ohio Bell telephone crews.

Repair crews of the company, together with those of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., have been working day and night since Thursday's storm. Total damage to wire equipment has been estimated at $1,500,000 by telephone company authorities, who said more than 17,000 poles had been pulled down by sleet-encrusted wires.

The Toledo, Bowling Green & Southern Traction Co., has announced that no cars will operate between Toledo and Findlay for at least three weeks, owing to broken power lines. The Norwalk division of the Lake Shore Electric was reported still blocked, but service was in effect on the Sandusky division.

Findlay, without electric current four night, due to broken power feeds, was expected to have resumed service today.

POLICE ARREST 43 LAST MONTH

MINE EVICTION DELAY REFUSED BY OHIO JUDGE

U. S. Marshal Is Ordered To Proceed At Once With Eviction

CONSIDER PLANS TO HOUSE MINERS

Judge Hough Says Orders Will Mark Climax Of Strike Situation

Columbus, April 2.—Ordering U. S. Marshal Stanley Borzhwick to proceed at once with the eviction of the 296 union miners and their families in the southeastern Ohio coal fields as directed in a federal eviction order last Jan. 13, Judge Benson W. Hough today refused to grant a postponement, asked by officials of the United Mine Workers of America.

Judge Hough announced, however, that no punishment will be inflicted upon those miners who refuse to obey the eviction order until after April 15.

General Frank D. Henderson of the O. N. G. was present at the meeting which was held in the judges' chambers. Lee Hall, president of the U. M. W. of Ohio, John Clinque, district president, and attorneys for both operators and miners were present.

Plans For Housing
Three avenues for housing of evicted miners were discussed.

1.—The barracks constructed by the U. M. W.

2.—The operators suggested use of houses near mines that are not now in operation.

3.—General Henderson said that tents were available if the war department would consent.

Henderson announced that he would leave for Washington immediately to get permission to use the tents in case there were no quarters for the evicted families.

Marshall Borzhwick reported that there are many company houses not in use at Fairport, Belmont county, and suggested that these houses be used for housing the evicted miners.

Climax To Strike
Matters of detail can not be considered at this time, Judge Hough said, and added that he would make a trip through southeastern Ohio if he saw need of first hand information.

Another eviction order which is effective May 1, "ousts" 285 other families from the houses they are now occupying. It is estimated that between 3,000 and 4,000 people will be made homeless by the two orders.

Calling for cooperation between the mine union officials and the operators, Judge Hough said he was anxiously awaiting results of the eviction orders as they would probably mark the climax of the coal strike situation in Ohio.

GERMANS FACE ATLANTIC RACE

French Pilot Is Planning Flight to Beat German Plane Across

Dublin, April 2.—With the Junkers monoplane Bremen still wheeling in its hangar at the Baldonnel airfield, interest in the trans-Atlantic flight was revived today by a report that Commandant James Fitzmaurice, head of the Free State air force, would accompany Capt. Koehl as relief pilot, and a rumor that an unnamed French pilot was contemplating a flight from Baldonnel in an effort to beat the German plane across to America.

The report that Fitzmaurice would act as relief pilot on the Bremen, followed the departure of Arthur Spindles for Germany last night.

The French pilot, who is believed to be Maurice Drouhin, is reported to have approached Free State officials for permission to fly to Baldonnel preparator to making a trans-Atlantic attempt. Fitzmaurice and Capt. Macintosh attempted trans-Atlantic flight last year but were forced back by adverse conditions.

Slightly improved weather conditions today gave the German fliers hope of being able to take-off tomorrow.

THREE INJURED WHEN FOG, SNOW HINDER TRAFFIC

Leontonia Men Brought To Hospital Here After Car Turns Over

Three persons were injured, one seriously, and more than a dozen autos were damaged in traffic mishaps over the weekend in and near Salem.

Fog and snow combined to make motoring a hazardous pleasure Saturday and Sunday nights, and at least half of the accidents reported were attributed to these two elements.

Two men, on their way home from Salem about 7 a. m. Sunday, were injured when the auto in which they were riding left the road and overturned on the Millville hill.

Raymond Heaton, 36, of Leontonia, sustained a broken collar bone; and Gerald Sullivan, 24, also of Leontonia, received minor bruises and cuts when the auto crashed. They were taken to Salem City hospital. Sullivan later was discharged and sent home when his injuries were found not to be serious, but x-ray examination showed that Heaton was badly hurt.

Car Turns Over at Curve
A man by the name of Smith, who was in the machine, escaped with a shaking up, and he went on to Leontonia after the accident.

One person was reported injured Sunday when a large sedan turned over on the curve of the Salem-Lisbon rd. at Eagleton's glens. The Studebaker wrecking crew were called to the scene, and towed the auto to a garage here, but the driver and his companions had disappeared.

A number of autos were ditched by the snow Saturday night, and several minor crashes occurred Sunday night when a dense fog blanketed this city and vicinity.

A report was received that a new car, which had been driven about 800 miles, was found, wrecked and abandoned, between Greenford and Canfield. The license plates had been removed.

April Fool Joker Arrested For Turning In False Fire Alarm; Lectured By Mayor

Firemen turned an April Fool joke Sunday onto the perpetrator, and it was only after much pleading today that the joker was released by Mayor Phil Hiddleson.

Harold Shisler, 25, of West Eighth st., extension, walked into the fire station yesterday afternoon and reported a fire on Roosevelt ave. Suspecting a joke, the firemen told him to run along, which he did.

A short time later the phone rang and a male voice reported a fire at Ellsworth and Fourth. The fire station number was put on the alarm box and the entire platoon answered the alarm.

When the truck arrived at the intersection no house could be seen ablaze, and immediately a joke was suspected. Fire Chief Vincent Malloy was told of Shisler's attempt a short time before to turn in the alarm personally, so Malloy hurried back to the station and began an investigation.

LOCHER CHOICE OF DONAHEY FOR SENATE, BELIEF

Appointment Likely To Be Made Wednesday; Others Active

DONAHEY URGED TO ACCEPT POST

But Governor's Advisers Believe He Would Not Consent To This

Columbus, April 2.—Attorney Cyrus Locher, Cleveland, state director of commerce, Democrat, today retained his position as the person most likely to be selected by Gov. Vic Donahey to succeed the late U. S. Senator Frank B. Willis as one of Ohio's representatives in the United States senate.

Donahey, it was indicated today, is expected to announce Wednesday whom he will appoint.

The Cleveland Federation of Labor, through James Malley, secretary, has endorsed Director Locher for the senatorship, it became known today. The Wayne county Democratic executive committee has recommended the appointment of Congressman John McSweeney, Wooster.

Others Suggested

Former U. S. Senator Atlee Pomerene, Cleveland; Judge Florence Allen, of the Ohio supreme court; Director of Agriculture Charles V. Truax, former Congressman Robert Crosser, Cleveland, and William A. Ashbrook, Johnston, Licking county; Robert A. Scott, Cambridge, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, and Mayor George Denton, Medina, have been suggested by friends for this position.

Mayor Denton is expected to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for congressman from the 14th district, succeeding Congressman Martin L. Davey, Kent, in the event that Davey is selected at the August primaries as the Democratic nominee for governor.

Some ardent friends of the governor were advising that Donahey resign from the governorship and that Lieut. Gov. Earl Bloom, Bowling Green, who would automatically succeed him as Ohio's chief executive, appoint Donahey to succeed Willis.

Would Not Consent
Intimate advisers of the governor today expressed belief that Donahey would not entertain such a proposal. Doubt was voiced whether the governor would heed such a suggestion even if it were in the form of a resolution adopted by the Democratic state executive or central committee.

Despite the recommendations submitted in behalf of others, state officials today stood pat in their belief that Governor Donahey will appoint Locher to the U. S. Senate.

If appointed, Locher would serve until his successor is elected at the Ohio polls next November and qualified. It was thought that in the event of his appointment, Locher would be a candidate next fall to succeed himself and fill out the term of Senator Willis which expires on March 4, 1933.

PARTNERS FINED IN LIQUOR CASE

Police Raid Pool Room On Broadway Late Sunday, Finding Liquor

Two partners operating a pool room at 39 Broadway, in the business district, were fined $300 and costs each today on charges of possession of liquor following a raid about 8 p. m. Sunday by Chief of Police T. W. Thompson and Patrolman Ralph Steffer.

Mike Volpe and Louis Detell, the operators of the place, pleaded guilty to the charges today when they were arraigned before Mayor Phil Hiddleson, and the mayor then fined them. Hiddleson nollod charges of selling, but warned that any further violations will mean that the selling charges will be pressed.

Dashing in through the unlocked front door of the pool room, the officers ran to a small back room and found several men assembled around the table, drinking, they alleged. Bottles containing whiskey were found, they said.

On a round table were several opened bottles of a soft drink, a number of glasses and some bottles. Looking under the table the officers found half a dozen slots in which bottles could be inserted to hide them. The table and layout were taken to City Hall.

Thompson obtained from one of the men in the place an affidavit that he had purchased three drinks at 25 cents each that day, and that five weeks previously he had bought drinks.

FORMER LEADER REVEALS STORY IN CELL TODAY

Men Flogged, Burned At Stake, and Catholic Churches Burned

POLITICAL CRIMES BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Women were Chief Means Of Destroying Klan Foes, He Says

Michigan City, Ind., April 2.—A tale of crime ranging from floggings to murder and political corruption, committed or sanctioned by the Ku Klux Klan, was revealed here today by D. C. Stephenson, once Indiana klan dragon, and second in command of the national klan.

Stephenson's story was told in his cell in a formal, sworn deposition, given under order of Judge W. H. S. Thomson, of the United States district court of Pennsylvania.

The deposition was taken under direction of Van C. Barrickman, Pittsburgh attorney, who is counsel in a federal suit seeking to oust the klan from Pennsylvania.

Men and Churches Burned
Men were flogged, lynched and burned at the stake for opposing the klan, while those higher placed were ruined socially and politically when the organization could not bend them to its will, Stephenson revealed.

Catholic churches were burned and pillaged, riots were incited and political officials bent to corrupt ways through orders of the klan chiefs.

Parts of the deposition, dealing with murders and political crimes charged to the klan, are withheld pending court action on the deposition.

The published portion, however, reveals the inner workings of the organization as it appeared to the man who once ruled it. It was called by officials who saw the deposition, "the first real unmasking of the klan."

Names of Victims
Stephenson told freely names of victims of klan wrath, and of perpetrators of the outrages. He discussed causes for rioting at Mer Rouge, South Bend, Herrin, Carnegie and other places.

The former dragon told of his leadership of the klan, of its formation and early prosperity under the idealistic rule of Emperor Simmons. Then he revealed the evils of later klan rule.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE

The Senate voted to keep the Marines in Nicaragua. Which is an indication that the Senate is not so bad, after all, as some would have you believe.

What should America do without the Monroe Doctrine? Few pronouncements have furnished so many texts for political orations.
 Not only the statesmen of the United States, but those of other lands can always find something there about which to talk.

Argentinian orators are giving it vogue at present. One of them calls attention of the League of Nations to the fact that the covenant of the league describes it as a "regional agreement," and then informs his colleagues that it is no such thing.
 In this he is quite right. It is not an agreement. It is a statement of United States' policy.

Another Argentinian, this time the envoy to Belgium, asserts that "we cannot allow a foreign power to take up itself the championship or guardianship of our independence."
 He does not have to. No one has asked him to. He forgets, or else hopes his hearing will forget that Argentina lost the Falkland Islands to England because the United States did not stand firmly upon the Monroe Doctrine, and that a large section of southern Argentina would be British today, if, on another occasion, the United States had not stood firmly by its policy.
 But this speaker "assails" and "strongly attacks" the Monroe Doctrine.

The Monroe Doctrine was announced as a policy designed to protect the interest and welfare of the people of the United States.
 That it incidentally was of incalculable value to the Latin-American republics was gratifying, but did not change its character.

One after another of them, Argentina included, have hastened to "denounce" the Monroe Doctrine
 when the danger was past. None of which affects the doctrine in the slightest. It stands today as the stable policy of the United States, and the peaceful and prosperous condition of the Western hemisphere is its all-sufficient justification.

FUTILE LECTURES

The lecture," says Philip Gued-er, himself a lecturer as well as a grapher, "is a comparatively useless thing if its effect is ended when the audience troops out and the lecturer goes back to his hotel.
 A lecture must, if it does its duty,
 serve as an incentive to reading;
 and if the most listless members of the audience employ it merely as a substitute, their time—as well as the lecturer's—has been very nearly wasted."

To which a cynic would reply that all lecturers and audiences waste their time these days, because lectures come so thick and fast that hearers only dash from one to another, without ever stopping to digest any of the things they hear and without making use of the ideas expressed in their own thinking or acting.

The lecture-going habit is almost a vice with Americans. Every group seems to have its series of lectures.
 And every topic from travel to diet
 has its ready lecturer.

Polite applause when the speaker is introduced, polite applause when he has concluded his remarks, and then much bowing and hand-shaking as friends put on their wraps and start home. They say to one another, "Fine lecture, wasn't it!"
 "Splendid speaker!" And that's the end of that intellectual round.

The average audience doesn't go in much for a critical analysis of the lecturer's statements and opinions. If individuals do happen to disagree with him, they rarely ask themselves why, or seek to discover which point of view is right.

Still, there is no immediate reason for prohibiting lectures altogether.
 There is money in lecturing and entertainment in listening. Possibly, too, a few ideas take hold now and then and a few people are moved really to study and think about them.

What Others Say

AMERICA COMING OF AGE

The change of front towards Latin America may be of more than local significance. It was in the western hemisphere that the United States
 first felt its power, used it inconsiderately to its advantage, and now appears to have learned that its own interests can be best and permanently furthered, not by the flat exercise of strength, but through applying the principle of mutuality.
 Among the nations of the world the United States holds no such position
 as it does in the western hemisphere; but it is, nevertheless, perhaps the most powerful political unit in the world today. European people, sometimes by the indirect testimony of their dislike, seem to acknowledge a new dominant factor in international affairs. But the shift is not generally understood in the United States. Our little arrogance, our dogmatic brusqueness, all indicate that, though we are beginning to taste the strange wine of power, we do not truly comprehend its nature or our own.

For that reason, the spirit of the Havana conference may be a promising sign. Secretary Kellogg's recent dismissal of unfounded charges in the gun elevation controversy with Great Britain was a deliberate effort towards good will, however slow it may have been in coming.
 Coolidge's outburst against the admirals was another. An honest effort, not a frivolous one, was made to meet the French overtures for a new arbitration treaty; and Washington's proposal that submarines be forever abolished by international convention was a constructive effort, even though it may have been regarded as "an insult" in certain foreign quarters.

"America comes of age," wrote Andre Siegfried of the social, political and economic life of the United States, as he saw it a year ago.
 If the Havana conference of 1928
 in the end is anything more than another example of the same old sort of thing, it will be because, at least in international relations,
 America is coming of age.—London Round Table.

WASTE FARMER'S MONEY

One of the soundest arguments
 yet heard against the Capper-Hope bill, a measure that would eliminate the direct buying of livestock by packers and force all the business
 into the regulated public stockyards, was that advanced by Jay C. Hor-mel, Austin, (Minn.) packer, recently before the senate committee on agriculture in Washington.

Proponents of the bill contend that, through direct buying, the packers are breaking up the co-operative shipping associations; that direct buying, in time, will eliminate the competitive public market, with the livestock producer the chief sufferer.

Mr. Hormel's answer is complete and convincing. To the contention that co-operative marketing is placed in jeopardy, he replies that more than four-fifths of all the hogs
 his company buys, come from cooperative shipping associations. To the contention that direct buying will eventually put the farmer at the mercy of the packer, through elimination of competition, Mr. Hor-mel replies that the company has been buying hogs direct for 35 years and that in this time the purchases have risen from 600 a year to more than 1,000,000 a year. The company has had to compete against public stockyards for hogs. That the farmers now sell to this single concern 1,800 times as many hogs as they sold in the beginning, would seem to indicate that they are doing better by direct selling than they could do otherwise.

Growth of the Hormel plant has made Austin the center of a heavy hog producing area. Mr. Hormel can see no sense in compelling farmers to pay for freight, brokerage, feed and shrinkage on long haul to a distant public market and then compelling the Austin packer to pay for freight and shrinkage on those same hogs on the journey back to the Austin region. Neither can we

TUESDAY, APRIL 3.

And the thoughts of men are adduced with the process of the Sun.—Tennyson.

This day's astrological testimonies point to new considerations in a business way. Involving possible secret and sinister machinations, which are likely to come into the open, bringing benefits in money as well as advancement in position. But beware the secret and sinister and be prepared to resist obstacles and treachery—this in domestic and business affairs.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year of excellent opportunity, negotiating with large concerns, but possibly through secrecy or stratagem. There may be an element of the sinister but this should be brought into the open to great financial advantage and bettered position.

A child born on this day should be equipped for places of secret and diplomatic relations, and should attain personal advancement and financial success
 through its talents in this direction. Its domestic, social and romantic affiliations should be interesting.

Notable Nativities: John Burroughs, American naturalist and author.

BABY NEEDS WATER
AS WELL AS MILK

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.

United States Senator from New York, Former Commissioner

of Health, New York City

Taking care of a baby is one of the most exacting jobs in all the world. You may think it is hard to run a farm, or operate a drug store, or practice law. But I give you my word it is harder work to take care of one husky infant than it is to do all these other things combined.

DR. COPELAND

I should pity a young mother
 if I thought only of what she has to do. But God is good. There is a reward of satisfaction in motherhood that is above every other human reward. Seeing the baby grow up and develop into useful citizenry is joy unspeakable.

My duties carry me here and there about the country. I spend many hours on railroad trains. It is a common experience to see a couple traveling with two or three young children.

Who is it holds the tired head and finds a new form of play for a restless child? Who prepares the feeding for the baby and supplies a lunch for another hungry mouth?

It is the mother, of course. Poor papa sits about, feeling and looking as helpless and out of place as a rabbit at a wedding.

Every mother has an exacting and difficult job. It takes brains, energy, tirelessness, sleeplessness, re-sourcesfulness and every other good quality to do it well.

The young mother with her first baby is in a very trying and exhausting position. She has so much to learn, poor soul.

I have heard my own mother tell how scared she was over the gurgles and funny sounds that were uttered by her first baby. On many occasions she was sure, she said, that the youngster was about to die.

Everybody is touched by the crying of a babe. It always means something, and the young mother has to learn just what each kind of cry indicates, so far as her baby is concerned.

Sometimes we will consider at length what the cry of a baby may mean. Today I want to remind you that it may mean that the baby is thirsty.

Nobody can have good health without taking lots of water to drink.
 The wastes of the body are carried away and the more water we take the more readily are these poisons eliminated.

The food we take is of no value
 to us unless it is dissolved and made ready for absorption into the blood.
 Without water we would dry up and die.

Many a baby has gone thirsty because the young mother was never told how necessary it is to give the infant a drink every once in a while. Bear that in mind, dear mother.

Of course the food of the nursing baby is a fluid. But don't get the idea that on this account there need be no plain water to drink. Water is about as important as the milk.

Have a sterilized bottle holding freshly prepared and cooled water which has been boiled. Give a little of this at frequent intervals between feedings.

Answers to Health Queries

C. I. Q.—What causes bloating of the stomach and belching after eating?

A.—Probably due to faulty diet and poor elimination. Send self-addressed, stamped envelope for further particulars and repeat your question.

OPERETTA GIVEN AT COLUMBIANA

Students Stage "Pickles"
Two Nights; Receive
Generous Praise

Columbiana, April 2.—A large audience thoroughly enjoyed the operetta, "Pickles," presented Friday evening at the Columbiana High school auditorium by the High school, under the direction of Mrs. Julia Miller, director of music.

The operetta scenes of which take place in Vienna, is a difficult one for amateur talent, and every one connected with the local production deserves great credit for so ably carrying through their tasks. The entire cast were their perfect in their parts and the singing was excellent. For high school students, and showed evidence of careful training by Mrs. Miller.

Miss Margaret Koch served as accompanist and her work was most commendable. The scenery, which was very effective, was constructed by and in charge of E. F. Miller, Craig Siegle and Donald Barbe, while the lighting was well taken care of by I. H. Weaver. The Misses Gooley and Lotze of the faculty served as Mrs. Miller's assistants.

Music between the acts was furnished by Vaughn's Melody Makers and the male quartet of Hubbard High school also sang three numbers. The principal roles and most of the singing were well taken care of by Willis Orr, Lucille Mellon, Gerald Miller, Alice Lodge, Albert Thoman and Mary Hollenshead.

William Keller and Wilbur Hoffee as two "comic opera" detectives, carried off the comedy honors of the show by their clowning, and other comic parts were finally taken by Lois Strohecker, Richard Lehman and Hubert Clapp. Minor roles were equally well taken by Willard Hoffman, George Seederly, Carolyn Gahagan and Mary Taylor.

The chorus work was excellently done and the costumes were appropriate and effective. Those taking part in the chorus were:

Viennese maidens: Ruth Wilson, Helen Detwiler, Kathryn Tidd, Mary Case, Eleanor Lehman, Ruth Rupert, Mildred Essenwein, Frances Seederly, Sara Burkle, Esther Lower, Maxine Vaughn, Zora Tyson, Dorothy Chamberlain, Eleanor Bender, Ruth Beard, Lois Knopp, Wilma Knopp, Ethel Rapp, Sarah Messersmith, Doris Harrold, Catherine Smith, Evelyn Wining, Virginia Hart, Burgess-George McCurry, Charles Rohrer, Daniel Detwiler, Roderick Bertolette, Andrew Crouse, Roy Leonard, Phil Zellers, Theodor Visker, Clifford Wender, Albert Householder, Kenneth Troth, William Arbuckle, Richard Switzer, Tourists: Virginia Shaffer, Margaret Schockley, Misses Phillips, Lois Maurer, Eleanor Shearer, Carolyn Haas, Gaylord Zellers, Eugene Crawford, Robert Maurer, James Barrow, Homer Stahl, Fred Detwiler.

The production was repeated Saturday night.

COURT NEWS

Divorce Petitions

James J. Novak of Smithton, Pa., is defendant in a divorce action filed in court by his wife, Helen M. Novak, by her counsel, W. A. O'Grady of Wellsville. The couple were married at Wellsburg, W. Va., in 1919 and one child is of issue. The charge of gross neglect of duty is made in the petition, and under the charge of extreme cruelty the plaintiff refers to the time when Novak struck his wife with his fist and kicked her, and then pulled her body over concrete steps. Novak is also charged with adultery.

Harve Lee, whose residence is unknown struck his wife Mabel Lee in the mouth and cut her lip, according to the divorce petition filed by Mrs. Lee by her attorney James E. Davis. Lee is also charged with gross neglect of duty and the petition declares that Mrs. Lee left her husband Oct. 16, 1926. They were married March 22, 1922 and no children are of issue.

When there was company at the home of Jack Riley, he struck his wife and blackened her eye, so it is related in the petition for divorce filed by Rosie Riley through her counsel James F. McGarry of East Liverpool. The whereabouts of Riley are unknown to the plaintiff.

During one of these fights friends at the home had to interfere with Riley the petition shows. Riley is also charged with habitual drunkenness for over a period of three years, and also gross neglect of duty. The couple were married Nov. 12, 1921, but no children are of issue.

Six Divorce Decrees

Six marriages went on the rocks when Judge W. F. Lones in common pleas court granted as many decrees to mismatched couples in common pleas court No. 1. Several of those who were granted decrees were married at New Cumberland, W. Va.

Alice Norton, through her next friend Myrtle Espy, filed divorce action against her husband, Samuel Norton, who has been ordered to pay the plaintiff $50 within 90 days and $3 per week, payable each half of the month from this date. This case has not come up for final hearing.

On the grounds of gross neglect of duty, Bessie Mathews has been granted a decree of divorce from her husband, Cleveland Mathews. The petition in this case was filed Oct. 10 last, and the plaintiff has been restored to her maiden name, Bessie Johnson.

Extreme cruelty and gross neglect of duty was charged in the divorce petition filed by Pearl Stoffel against her husband, Ernest Stoffel, and the court has granted the plaintiff a decree on these grounds. The court in this case has ordered the defendant to pay the plaintiff $5 per week for the support of the minor child.

Gross neglect of duty was charged in the petition for divorce in the case of Florence Fisher against her husband, Samuel H. Fisher. A decree was granted on this ground. This petition was filed Jan. 5 last.

In the case of Eva M. Oliver, against Elmer E. Oliver, the plaintiff has been granted a decree of divorce on the grounds of gross neglect of duty. The court in this case has ordered the defendant to pay the plaintiff $100 as alimony, in full within the next 30 days. The costs in the action have been adjudged against the plaintiff.

Extreme cruelty and gross neglect of duty were the grounds set up in the petition of Mary Visu against her husband George Visu, and the court had to engage the services of an interpreter in this divorce case. A decree has been granted the plaintiff on the grounds of gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty, and the maiden name of the plaintiff has been restored, that of Mary Ziga.

Two Decrees Granted

On the grounds of extreme cruelty a decree of divorce has been granted Margaret Jane Sauer against her husband, Edward A. H. Sauer. The custody of minor children has been awarded the plaintiff and alimony has been ordered as has been agreed upon between the parties.

Sustaining the charge in the petition of gross neglect of duty and adultery, a decree of divorce has been granted George H. Esenuth, Jr., against his wife, Nellie J. Esenuth. The decree was to follow the payment of costs. The case was filed Jan. 27, last.

Wants $1063 Damages

In a petition filed in common pleas court by Frank O'Hanlon against Frank Moore, residing in Summit Lane, East Liverpool, $1,053.79 damages is sought as a result of Moore assaulting O'Hanlon last Wednesday. The plaintiff claims that Moore kicked him in the pit of the stomach and otherwise assaulted him, tore his clothing, and then damaged a number of chattels. The petition for the plaintiff was filed by Atty. P. V. Mackall of East Liverpool.

BRITISH REPORT SHIPPING GAINS

Industry Is On Upgrade
For First Time Since
The World War

London, April 2.—Despite the tremendous handicapped on private ownership by government control of the merchant marine, the British shipping industry is on the upward grade, for the first time since the war.

During the seven years, from 1919 to 1926, the amount of new tonnage placed in commission in the British Empire has only made up the amount of wastage through losses and breaking up. But during last year there was an increase of 820,000 gross tons in the total amount of tonnage under construction, which gave evidence of an expansion in world trade.

Orders From Abroad

Proof of the latter is shown in the fact that over 200,000 tons of building, under construction in British yards at the end of 1927, was for foreign owners.

Another increase of only 420,000 tons would put British shipping on a par with what it was before the war. Many authoritative shipping experts believe that this increase will occur during the present year.

In the movement of shipping Britain has made enormous strides since the war. The arrivals and departures of ships with cargoes in the coasting trade of the United Kingdom were 28 million net tons in 1922. The total for 1927 was 35 1-2 million net tons.

Export Increase

An even greater increase was noticed in the foreign trade of the United Kingdom, when the entrances and clearances of British vessels rose from 49 million net tons in 1921 to nearly 83 million net tons last year.

Experts during 1927 totalled 57,212,898 more than in 1926, while there was a decrease of 23,476,255 in imports over 1926.

Thus while the British shipping is still under the shadow of a long depression, signs of a revival to comparative prosperity are not lacking. British ships still carry half of the world's trade, and the total amount of tonnage, 1,580,000 under construction on December 31st of last year represented more than the combined tonnage building in the rest of the world.

British Wine Men Get New Ruling On Foreign Beverages

London, April 2.—New regulations, just issued, relating to British wine, states that a manufacturer must not:

Mix any British wine with any foreign wine except in the course of manufacture, or in the course of manufacture mix them so as to exceed the proportion of 15 gallons of foreign wine to 100 gallons of British wine.

Mix any spirits with any British wine except to fortify the wine; A dealer must not mix for sale any foreign wine with any British wine or sell British wine contrary to the above regulations; A dealer in spirits must not mix any British wine with any spirits except for coloring or fining the spirits. British wine manufactured as above must be sold as British wine.

In practice, the regulations put a stop to a former custom of adding a certain amount of foreign wine to British wine and selling it bottled as "Fine Old Tawny" or "Genuine Ruby Port."

Devil's Islands Natives Share Meals With Weird Spirits

Berkeley, Cal., April 2.—Slumbering in summer seas, 80 miles west of Sumatra and just south of the equator, the "Devil's Islands" dot a seldom visited portion of the Pacific ocean.

Here Malaysian natives of a half-forgotten race share daily meals with weird spirits and sway to the superstitious chanting of "Shaman" or medicine men.

Describing a five months stay with the Mentawai, as inhabitants of this, strange realm are known, Dr. Edwin M. Loeb, research associate and lecturer in the department of anthropology, University of California, today revealed the first definite information concerning the ways and mode of living of these people. Malaysian students have been able to assemble.

Guard of Soldiers

Dr. Loeb's material was gathered during a recent trip to Pageh, one of the distant island group, on a donation by the Guggenheim foundation in New York.

On his arrival in the islands the Dutch government preferred a guard of soldiers previous to two white men had been slain by natives with poison arrows. Because he believed the guard would interfere with his work Dr. Loeb rejected the offer and reports that he was never in serious danger.

In Pageh there are no chiefs, nor even rich men, Dr. Loeb found. Slavery is unknown. The villages are divided into sections called "uma" and for each "uma" is a priest.

Haunted by the fear that only by the intervention of strange spirits of the air are the ghosts of the dead restrained from returning to haunt their homes, the Mentawai make daily sacrifices. Dr. Loeb found. The ghosts would bring with them pestilence and death the natives believe.

Sickness is thought to be caused by the temporary departure of the soul from the body of the afflicted. The "Shamen," Mentawai medicine men were the chief study of Dr. Loeb's stay on the islands, invoke return of the soul's and in general act as healers of the tribes.

Communal Meals

Every meal at which meat is eaten is communal in character and shared in by all the people of the "uma" and by their spirits which they believe hover over them.

Dr. Loeb discovered a vast complicated system of taboos under the native law. Their religious ceremonies are fantastically involved. The chief of these ceremonies is the "punteh," celebrated at the building of a new communal house, the selection of a new priest, the spilling of blood within the village, in time of an epidemic or similar incident out of the routine.

Ceremonial washing of the hair of the participants, the donning of gay regalia, suspension of work in the field and the slaughter of pigs and chickens mark the "Punteh."

Monkey, deer and sea-turtles are the chief sacrificial animals. Only one white man lives in "Devil's Island," Dr. Loeb found. He is Herr Berger, a German missionary residing in Pageh.

Embezzler Dies In Ohio Penitentiary

Shuter was sent to the penitentiary for a term of from six months to 30 years after he had pleaded guilty to an indictment charging him with the embezzlement of about $23,000 of the county funds.

Having been received into the penitentiary March 23, he was stricken with brain fever and died late Saturday.

STEPHENSON

When Simmons was ousted from leadership the clan continued to scheme against men it could not bend to its purposes.

"Women," Stephenson declared, "were the chief and most effective means of destroying clan opponents."

Women Victims

"In several cases, one of these women was photographed while scantily clad and then, by skilled photographic manipulation of the pictures, the clan's enemies would be combined in the same view."

"One instance is where an attempt was made to involve the name of Senator Fess with that of a woman. The clan reason was because Senator Fess had voted against the Sterling-Towner bill, which would have abolished parochial schools and had for its object other purposes."

He told how the clan bought judges by pledging them enough votes to elect them, how legislators were put in office to vote for bills suitable to the society.

Questioned on political policies, he told of initiating Governor Ed Jackson who, he said, had visions at one time of going into the White House through aid of the clan.

Battalion of Death

Hiram Evans, he said, at one time told him he was going to move the national offices of the clan to Washington, D. C. "There to do for the United States what he (Stephenson) had done for Indiana."

He revealed existence of the "black mask" worn by members of lynching and whipping parties. It was, he said, the official uniform used in acts of mob violence. He mentioned also the "battalion of death," a purple-robed group of killers in Philadelphia and other communities.

Riots at Niles, Ohio, and Perth Amboy, New Jersey, in which clansmen were killed, were sponsored by the clan, he said, in order to increase memberships.

Asked for membership figures, Stephenson said that at the peak of its prosperity in 1922 the clan had 315,000 members in Indiana, 350,000 in Ohio, 300,000 in Pennsylvania, 60,000 in New Jersey, and 300,000 in all the rest of the New England states. Illinois was slightly below Indiana, the witness said, while Michigan was about the same as Indiana. Wisconsin had 60,000.

The organization took in between 50 and 60 million dollars during the time in which he held office, Stephenson said.

Stephenson's deposition will be used in a suit, to be heard April 9, in which five former clansmen are seeking to have the clan barred from Pennsylvania, on ground that it has incited riots, misappropriated huge sums and exerted evil influence on public officials.

CHARGES D. A. R. HAS BLACKLIST; OPENS ATTACKS

Prominent Persons Have Been Blacklisted, Woman Claims

Boston, April 2.—A bitter controversy started by charges that the Daughters of the American Revolution are 'blacklisting' various individuals and organizations because of allegedly Communist or Pacificist leanings, today split Massachusetts members of the D. A. R. into two rival camps.

Mrs. Helen T. Baile of Cambridge a leader of the faction which opposes the alleged "blacklisting," caused a sensation at a meeting of the Boston Ethical society by declaring that two "extremely virulent" groups in Boston have made the D. A. R. and the American Legion "catpaw of a tremendous conspiracy to crush free thought, free speech, and even liberty itself."

"Blacklist factories," Mrs. Baile charged, are unjustly stamping clergymen, welfare workers and prominent educators as "undesirable, doubtful, and unfit to address patriotic gatherings."

"The movement is being carried to absurd lengths," Mrs. Baile said. "Even Mrs. Alvan T. Fuller, wife of the governor, could not speak at a D. A. R. meeting simply because she accepted an honorary membership in the International Garment Workers' union which has been blacklisted by the D. A. R."

Prominent persons who have been "blacklisted," the speaker charged, included Bishop William F. Anderson, President Mary F. Wooley of Mount Holyoke college, United States Senator Brookhart, and Miss Maude Royden.

"These scurrilous and slanderous attacks upon honest citizens also have been made by blacklists factories in Illinois, California and other states," Mrs. Baile charged. "Two such virulent groups in Boston are the Industrial Defense Association, Inc., and the Massachusetts public interests league."

SEEKS RELEASE OF MRS. WILSON

New York, April 2.—Counsel for Mrs. Esther Wilson, who fired two bullets into the body of her husband, Dallett H. Wilson, rich attorney and politician, today began a fight to free her from Jefferson Market prison under bail.

Simultaneously, the noted big game hunter came nearer naming the particular woman who inspired her attack than at any time since the shooting. Wilson is fighting death in Reception Hospital, Welfare Island.

For three days, she told authorities, she trailed the attorney and watched as he entered a building where which she said housed a number of beautiful women tenants. She declared the attorney maintained another residence there.

The grave condition of Wilson made it certain the district attorney's office would offer stern opposition to liberation of his wife. It is reported that arrangements had been made for a blood transfusion. Both bullets have been extracted, one from the arm and the second from the chest, close to the lung.

Evangelist Decries Birth Control Talk By Women Students

Des Moines, Ia., April 2.—Almire Semple McPherson, golden-haired evangelist from Los Angeles, thinks the co-eds of the University of Iowa are going a bit too far when they undertake to discuss from a public forum the question of birth control.

"The young ladies of the state university already have taken up the questions of petting, smoking, drinking and companionate marriage, birth control is the subject slated for the next open discussion."

"I am a firm believer in the wholesomeness of the present generation, and I think the girls of today are better off than their great-grandmothers. They know more of life's problems than were their mothers," Mrs. McPherson declared, "but I think they will be going too far if they take up the question of birth control."

Mrs. McPherson, however, thinks the girls are doing a good thing when they take up the less intricate problems of marriage and courtship provided they do so for the sake of obtaining really helpful information.

"Too many mothers fail to instruct their daughters properly and turn them out into the world without proper knowledge," she continued. "The girl who ventures forth into the cities thus unprotected, is prepared to learn through the often bitter way of experience, or by what she can pick up. If she can obtain worthwhile information at such discussions as those held at Iowa City she is just so much better off."

The extensive stable of thoroughbreds and the breeding establishment at Jobstown, N. J., it is said, represent an investment of more than $2,000,000.

OHIO DISTRICT IN INCLUDED IN FLOOD PROGRAM

Govern Mississippi Through Control of the Tributary Flow

Washington, April 2.—The War department today announced a million-dollar flood control program in the tributary streams of the Great Mississippi system.

Instead of devoting itself exclusively to the main river bed, as contemplated in the $325,000,000 flood control bill now before congress, the army engineers will seek in the future to govern the Mississippi discharge through control of the tributary flow.

Scores of new gauging stations will be established in every important drainage basin between the Alleghenies, and the Rockies. In this region, alone, special allotments of $780,000 for flood control are made available for the next year. Work will begin immediately.

A reserve fund of $500,000 is available for projects in which the current allotments are not sufficient. The special allotments will be expended under the direction of the army engineers at various strategic river points and include the following:

Pittsburgh district, for Ohio, Allegheny, Monongahela and Beaver $19,000.

Huntington district, for Muskingum Kanawha and others $59,500.

Cincinnati district, for Miami, Licking and Kentucky $16,000.

Louisville district, for Salt, Green, Tradewater, and Wabash $49,000.

QUAKE FOLLOWED BY LANDSLIDES

New Shocks rock Smyrna Where 75 Are Killed And 100 Injured

Constantinople, April 2.—Dangerous landslides have followed a series of violent earthquake shocks in the Smyrna district where between 50 and 75 persons are reported to have been killed and more than 100 injured.

Owing to the fact that some regions were isolated by the tremors the exact death list is not yet known.

New shocks were reported Sunday morning in some parts of the Smyrna district, but no further casualties were listed.

Troops have been sent into the zone of destruction to aid the homeless and help clear up the wreckage. Many houses were shaken down and a large fissure was opened in the earth at Smyrna.

The Turkish Red Cross is helping care for the homeless at Torbali and Smyrna.

President Mustapha Kemal Pasha, asked for a report upon the damage and list of victims. His divorced wife lived at Smyrna where her father is a rich merchant.

The quake at Smyrna was accompanied by a severe storm. Bolts of lightning flashed through the sky and the thunder was as heavy as cannonading. The sky became overcast and the weather grew dark. Rain fell in torrents.

KILLS HIS WIFE THEN HIMSELF AFTER QUARREL

Cleveland, April 2.—Following an early morning quarrel with his wife, Elsie, 29, Frank Alioto, 36, today shot and killed Mrs. Alioto and then took his own life with the same revolver.

A divorce suit had been pending, authorities said.

Alioto, who police say was discharged from the Dayton workhouse one week ago, after he had served five months for a liquor law violation, fired five shots into his wife's body, then killed himself with the remaining shell.

Three children were made orphans by the tragedy. The couple had been married 12 years.

STRAIGHT FAILS, LEAPS TO DEATH

Man Carries Out Threat When His Wife Holds A Full House

New York, April 2.—"If I don't win this pot, I'll jump out of the window."

Thus spoke John Taber, 31, a salesman, when he picked up a straight in a friendly five and ten cent poker game last night at the home of Robert Miller, a friend.

"Yes, you will," derided the other players, Miller and the wives of the two men.

After the draw, Taber and his wife kept raising each other and the Millers dropped out. Taber, who had been losing steadily, finally wavered and called. He displayed his straight.

"No good," said his wife, "I've got a full house."

Taber was annoyed. "Let's see it," he demanded. Mrs. Taber laughed, pocketed the money, and threw her cards into the discards face down.

A violent quarrel followed. Taber stepped into the next room. There was a crash. The others ran to the window and saw Taber writing on the pavement of the alleyway one story below. He was dead when an ambulance arrived.

REACTIONARY MARKET

New York, April 2.—Radio Corporation lost 8 points on its first sale of 10,000 shares at the opening of the market today. United States Steel declined a point to 146 1/2 and Union Pacific was down 1 1/2 at 105 1/2.

The market was slightly reactionary with fractional losses in the speculative favorites. General Motors sold down 1/2 at 183 1/2; General Electric was down 2 points at 157; Sears Roebuck down 1/2 at 103 1/2; Erie down 1/2 at 56 1/2. The oils were firm, with Atlantic Refining up 1/2 at 107 1/2.

Saturday's closing profit-taking selling of the market leaders was carried into the early trading today, and prices in some sections of the market declined sharply. Radio lost 8 points on its first sale of 10,000 shares at 178 and losses of a point or more were recorded in General Electric, Union Pacific and other high-priced stocks.

Reports that the New York bankers would assist for a sharp curtailment of bank borrowings for speculative purposes and that stocks offered for collateral were being much more conservatively valued, created some uneasiness in the big financial district.

Bulls in the stocks soon whipped Radio back to 183, Saturday's closing price, where extremely heavy trading took place. General Electric and General Motors held their ground a point or two below Saturday's closing, with buying and selling orders pouring in from all sections of the country.

Stock trading was in enormous volume in the forenoon and the ticker fell behind the market to such an extent that quotations were only a little value to the "fast worker," except the floor traders on the stock exchange itself. Atlantic Refining led a rally in the oils, but buying of most of the speculative oils was suspended for the time being.

Bulls in the copper stocks pushed Anaconda vigorously to the front in the second hour, the stock passing to above 63 for a new high record for the year.

The railroad stocks were dull and featureless. Public utility stocks felt the weight of profit taking.

Stock sales in the first hour were only slightly under a million shares, indicating the likelihood of another 4,000,000 short day. Bond sales were also heavy in this period, with increasing interest in the speculative corporation issues.

On light transactions cotton declined a few points in the first hour. Wheat and corn sold fractionally higher, and most of the local commodity markets were steady, as also were the foreign exchanges.

CHICAGO POLICE CHARGE DRY MEN WITH SHOOTING

Defenseless Citizen Shot Down In Raid Led By Federal Agent

POLICE WAR ON GOVERNMENT MEN

Citizens Warned Band Of Men Operates In Chicago to Kill

Chicago, April 2.—George E. ("Hard-boiled") Golding and his special squad of imported dry raiders were today's headlines in Chicago's hair-raising pre-election drama. They were being sought by 500 state police officers for the "attempted murder of a defenseless citizen."

The incident which, temporarily at least, has taken the play from bombings and gangster shootings, and which threatens open warfare between government forces and local police, occurred last Thursday night when William Beatty, court bailiff and politician, was shot down in a raid led by Golding.

Search for Dry Agent. Police who are searching for the "hard-boiled" dry agent and his crew are armed with a warrant for "John Doe," a United States prohibition agent, charging him with assault to commit murder. Federal officials said John Doe was Myron Caffey, a member of Golding's squad, and admitted he was in hiding.

The government men said they would surrender Caffey today on demand. But this did not satisfy Commissioner of Police Michael Hughes, who ordered his men to bring in Golding and all his men. Commissioner Hughes said he was not prepared to take federal officials' word for the identity of the man who shot Beatty. He preferred to let the wounded man and Beatty's wife, who was with him at the time, point out the man who did the shooting.

The temper of the police department and a large number of citizens over the manner in which Beatty was shot, was indicated when several hundred citizens called at the detective bureau to view suspects. Deputy Commissioner William E. O'Connor addressed the gathering as follows:

Warns Citizens
"Ladies and gentlemen—
"For your protection I want to warn you of a band of men now operating in Chicago. Their purpose here is not exactly known. But if these marauders, riding in heavily armed automobiles like gangsters, stop you in any place or on the street, take my advice and throw up your hands. Don't wait for them to ask you—as soon as you see them throw up your hands. Because they shoot to kill.

"These men travel in three automobiles. Sometimes they represent themselves as secret service. Sometimes they say they are federal officers. Sometimes they claim they know yet who they are. We don't know yet who they are. The other night they shot a defenseless citizen and we now have officers looking for them."

Air Transportation Saves Horse's Life At Cavalry School

Washington, April 2.—The air corps placed a new white mark beside the army's newest transportation machine today because of its demonstrated efficiency in prolonging the life of the oldest—the horse.

A fine mount at the Fort Riley, Kansas, Cavalry school was saved from forage poisoning recently by an emergency airplane trip to Kansas City for anti-toxin.

The airplane cut the minimum supply schedule between Riley and Kansas City from 30 hours to three. The distance is 230 miles.

"The prompt treatment," said a report today from the War department, "resulted in the recovery of the mount, which undoubtedly would have died had not the local veterinarian resorted to air transportation."

Dodge Party Finds Diatoms Responsible For Deposits of Oil

Few motorists stop to think, when they drive up to a gas station and have the car gassed and oiled, about the why and wherefore of the fuel they use every day.

A number of years ago, according to geologists, about 10,000,000 more or less, things started happening in a way to benefit the automobile owner of today. Diatoms, small animals invisible to the naked eye, abound on the surface of the water. They are of peculiar formation and when they die the shell, or diatom, a silica composition sinks to the floor of the ocean. Harkening back to other days, California was covered with water in many places and as the receding period came and the ages were on these same diatoms formed diatomaceous earth and subsequently the oil which is pumped from wells today.

These shell-like fragments form diatomaceous ooze. The ooze, when it is compressed and lifted by slow motions of the earth, forms what is known as diatomaceous earth.

In some of this diatomaceous earth near Lempeo, Calif., fish have been known to be embedded in the ooze. The diatomaceous earth at Lempeo, being tilted higher than the rest, does not contain oil, for had oil existed it would naturally long since have drained out.

An exploring party in a Dodge Brothers Victory Six recently visited the Lempeo ground in search of geological specimens and reported finding numerous imprints of trilobites and of the vertebrae of fish which lived in the Paleozoic age.

TRAFFIC DEATH TOLL IS HEAVY IN OHIO SUNDAY

TEACHER SLAIN, FRIEND SOUGHT

Worcester, Mass., April 2.—Search for the slayer of Miss Marguerite Isabelle Stewart, supervisor-teacher at the Beverly school for deaf mutes, whose body was found by the roadside in Concord, shifted to her home city here today with authorities expecting an arrest shortly.

A check of telephone calls between Beverly and this city resulted in a close acquaintance of the girl being placed under police surveillance.

The girl's father, Charles Edward Stewart, was locked up here—for his own protection, police said. He was so bitter against the world following the death of his "little pal and angel," A charge of intoxication was lodged against him.

Investigators ran into a queer angle in the murder mystery. The father told police that his daughter had a premonition that something would happen to her and turned over to him a key to a safety deposit box in which she kept his and her life insurance policies.

YANKEES FACE STIFF BATTLE TO COP AGAIN

Walsh Believes League is Much Improved Over 1927

GENERAL BALANCE NOTED IN CIRCUIT

Some Teams Better And Yanks Are a Little Worse, His View

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
New York, April 2.—One of the best bets of the day is that the World's Champion New York Yankees will not be bowed politely into another American league pennant this year, that, if they win again, which is entirely plausible, they will be pursued up to the wire, not escorted, and that they may even experience a few bad moments en route.

This is not written because the Yanks are blowing a lot of exhibition games in the south. It represents, in fact, the dispassionate opinion of smart baseball men, who pay exactly no attention to exhibition records.

These, after all, come within the general meaning of a well practice put. The Yankees have the stuff and sooner or later it will come out like a pardoned convict.

League Somewhat Better
But there is a well founded suspicion that the pitching they had and the hitting they knew last year are no more and never again will be. They still figure to get plenty of both, of course; enough, in fact, so that the man doesn't live who would bet against them as a pennant prospect. The only thing is that the league is somewhat better and the Yanks are somewhat worse.

Any baseball man, for example, will lay you odds that Ruth and Gehrig don't hit all those home runs again. They say that one of them may repeat but never both. It may be mentioned that Ruth and Gehrig have hit precisely none so far.

The Yanks themselves will bet you that they don't beat the St. Louis Browns nearly as many times as they did last year. Their 1927 record against the Browns was a baseball miracle and those kind of things just don't happen more than once. It accounted for not a small portion of the Yankees' 19-game lead at the pay off.

Red Sox Improved
Much of their early success, too, was due to the prostrate character of the Boston Red Sox. The latter may be none too vertical yet but bill Carrigan's influence is beginning to percolate and the Sox figure to win more games from everybody, including the Yankees.

The prospects for the American league race, of course, indicate no little lack of general balance. This, however, is not confined to the admitted contenders, which, until proved otherwise, must be regarded as having improved their hands before the draw.

The Detroit Tigers, for instance, were one of the reigning disappointments of the 1927 race, due to one thing or another and mostly both. Chronic injuries might account for this in part but not altogether.

Tigers Failed to Click
The Tigers just didn't click. Yet they have the class and nobody is looking for them to finish so far off the pace this time. If they don't, it will mean that they have won considerably more games than they did last year and these will have to come from somewhere. The Yankees won't furnish all of them and they won't furnish none of them, either. A tighter race means a contribution from everybody to the club that happens to get up there.

The other contenders, Washington and the Athletics, either have improved their chances or everyone is being fooled. Maybe, as, alleged, Cobb and Speaker won't help Connie. I can't see them hurting him much at that. However, in the last analysis, the club's advance must come from its pitching and, frankly, there is no reason to expect that it will blow as badly as it did in the early months of the last campaign.

As for the Senators, an outfit with their kind of pitching can't go very far wrong and a good bet is that it won't.

Training Camp Notes

Atlanta, Ga., April 2.—The New York Yankees hope to stretch their winning streak to three games today at the expense of the Atlanta crack-ers.

They showed their old-time battling power in swamping Montgomery yesterday, 10 to 2. Ruth and Gehrig getting tribles. Koenig got a homer.

Birmingham, Ala., April 2.—The New York Giants begin a seven-game series with the Washington Senators here today.

Jackson's triple and good pitching by Walker and Chaplin gave the New Yorkers a 2 to 1 victory over Memphis yesterday.

Birmingham, Ala., April 2.—The Senators will try to take the rubber game from the Giants today in the spring exhibition series. Horace Lisenbee, considered by many to be the best young pitcher developed in the American league last season, will do the mound work for the Nats.

HEENEY IS COLD CHALLENGER; NO DEMAND FOR HIM

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, April 2.—Tex Rickard already has proved that he is the greatest of all sport promoters. He now can begin proving that he is a magician.

Only a guy that can reach into a tall hat with his bare arm and come out with a ton of coal, neatly tied in baby ribbon, figures to show the board of directors any great profit on a Tunney-Heeneey fight for the heavyweight championship, announcement of which was made on Saturday.

For the first time since Rickard removed his bar apron in favor of a frock coat, he is going out to try to pick up the big money with an oyster fork. He always had a steam shovel in other years. The Garis-Nelson fight couldn't miss. Neither could Jeffries and Johnson. These

DAILY WORKOUTS STARTED TODAY BY TRACK SQUAD

Salem Athletes to Enter Meets On Three Saturdays This Month

Salem High's track squad today began its first month of the regular season, and both indoor and outdoor workouts will be the rule daily until the annual "prelims" or inter-class meet at Reilly field April 10.

The outdoor meet date is still tentative, pending the progress of work on the field, and it is possible that there may be a postponement necessary in case the field is not available that day, or the weather is bad.

Preparations, however, are being pointed toward three regular meets on successive Saturdays this month, the first to be a dual clash with Lisbon High at the county fair grounds on April 14.

Lisbon has the makings of a first rate team this year, and though the Blue and White have no hope of trimming the Salem squad, still there is always a chance. It will be a meet chiefly for the purpose of trying out new men under fire on both teams, and the coaches of the two teams intend to give all promising candidates a chance to show their wares.

Salem will enter a team of considerable proportions in the annual Ohio Relays of Ohio State university April 21. Not only will the pole vaulters seek to set up a new relay record, but a number of other stars will compete in an effort to bring honors to the team.

The Red and Black always have done well in the relays, a number of firsts being taken in the last three years. The school is counted as one of the leading interscholastic contenders in this annual meet by the managers.

On Saturday, April 28, Salem will compete with Canton McKinley and Akron Central in the annual triangular meet between the three schools. This meet will be held at Canton again. Salem won the meet last year, and has hopes of repeating.

From now on it will be a steady round of competition for the team. May is filled up, with successive meets with the Mt. Union Freshmen; schools of the tri-state district at Carnegie Tech; the county and district meets here; the state meet at Columbus, and in June the national at Chicago.

Barnstorming Tour For Davis Cup Team

New York, April 2.—Advises reaching the Davis cup committee here indicate that William T. Tilden, captain and czar of the American Davis cup team, is routing the team into a barnstorming tour which will take in the entire country from coast to coast.

Tilden is carrying on negotiations now for two "exhibition" dates with others projected to follow. The most immediate is a trip to Dallas, Texas, for a series of exhibition matches to take place before the first round Davis cup match with Mexico next week. "Big Bill" is also negotiating for a trip to California for a number of exhibitions.

Johnson Not T. B. Victim Says Doctor

Washington, April 2.—Reports that Walter Johnson, for 20 years the speed ball ace of the American league, is suffering from tuberculosis were denied today by his physician, Dr. H. M. Kaufman.

Johnson was brought to Emergency hospital here last week from Florida. He has lost nearly 50 pounds in weight, and was taken from the train in a wheel chair.

Englishwomen Quit Studying Medicine

London, April 2.—Englishwomen are finding the medical profession so overcrowded that they are ceasing to train for medical degrees in the numbers they did a few years ago.

The Westminster Hospital, one of London's largest free institutions, has taken a practical lead in the matter by refusing to train any more women medical students. Charing Cross hospital, another of the large hospitals, is said to be considering taking similar steps, which would leave only three hospitals open to women.

fight promoted themselves, which was fortunate because it is doubtful whether Rickard knew what it was all about at that time.

Dempsey Made Tex

Later, when times were better and so was Rickard, along came Jack Dempsey with a series of knockouts and the Willard-Dempsey fight was made. So was the entire fight game when Dempsey won in the early minutes of play. The Dempsey-Carpenter fight was a "natural" because of the latter's gameness. Also the Dempsey-Firpo bout for the same reason. The first Dempsey-Tunney fight in Philadelphia drew a great crowd because nobody had seen Dempsey fight for three years and the Chicago affair repeated because they just had to see Dempsey again.

There's the story of Tex Rickard: Dempsey, Dempsey, Dempsey!

Can this refrain be altered to sound like Heeneey, Heeneey, Heeneey? The writer is pleased to think not.

For one thing, Heeneey is a "cold" challenger. There is no demand for him to fight Tunney or anybody else, for that matter. They might have tossed him in there with John Risko but that fight didn't figure to gross heavy money, after the apathetic series of "eliminations" that were held this winter, and so it was allowed to go by default.

"Now, they are asking this challenger, who couldn't draw too much with a natural rival, to go in there and produce a million dollar gate with a champion whom everyone characterizes as a "kick-in against any of them."

May Go To England

And it could just as well have been any of "them"—Sharkey, Deaneey, Risko, Paulino, etc.—because there is no real stand-out in the lot. If Risko had been born in Kamchatka and not Cleveland, he might have received the nod, there being no doubt that Heeneey's selection was influenced by the fact that he is a foreigner who might figure to inflate the occasion with an air of internationalism.

Because of this, Rickard may be playing straight in his threat to take the Tunney-Heeneey fight to England. The jolly blighters are not accustomed to pay $50 for ringside rows and altogether there would not be any Chicago or Philadelphia purses there but Rickard may have reason to figure that a ton of shillings will be worth more than an ounce of dollars.

ANOTHER BOXING SHOW FOR SALEM

Plans are under way for another all-star boxing show to be staged in Memorial gym in the latter part of this month by the Mullins Foremen's club.

The date has not been set, pending the matching of the bouts, but it is probable that the fight will be around April 27. The same committee will have charge of this show as had charge of the excellent show several weeks ago.

If possible, the committee will bring back to Salem U. S. Carpenter and Young Rudy, the two fast Pittsburgh boys, who displayed the most commendable ring tactics of any of the lads in action in the first Mullins show.

No boxers have been decided upon for the main go, but the club gives assurances that they will be topnotchers.

40 BIRTHS, 32 DEAD IN COUNTY DURING MARCH

The report of County Health Commissioner T. T. Church for March shows 32 deaths and 40 births during the month. Forty cases of communicable diseases were reported to the commissioner during the last 30 days.

According to the death report there were two deaths under the age of one month; one between ages of 10 and 20 years; one between five and ten years; one between 20 and 30 years; three between 30 and 40; three between 50 and 60; six between 60 and 70; two between 70 and 80; four between 80 and 90.

The report shows there are 50 cases of scarlet fever and 25 cases of mumps in the county during the month.

New York—Rupert La Belle and Rena Parker signed "Salesman" and "home girl" respectively on an application for a marriage license. The Rialto has identified them as musical comedy stars.

That cold may turn into "Flu." Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once. Rub Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief. As effective as the messy old mustard plaster; does the work without blister. Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold. You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

MT. UNION PINS TRACK HOPES ON TWO SALEM BOYS

Yengling Star In Weight Events; Cope Is Long Distance Runner

Mt. Union's hopes of a successful track season rest upon the shoulders of two Salem boys, Yengling and Cope.

The Alliance college has a schedule of seven meets to take place immediately after the April recess, and the heavy burden of that schedule must be held by the former Salem High athletes who are due to have their best season in intercollegiate competition.

Yengling, a grid star for Mount for three years, and who has won his track letter two successive seasons, will be depended upon as Mount's weight man this year. He throws the javelin, puts the shot and tosses the discus with equal ability, and he is expected to land first place points for his team in these three events.

"Pood" has yet to fail to come through with his share, and more, in any college meet. For that reason the Mounters look to him as a possible high point man this year.

Cope, holder of the Salem High record in the mile run, 4 minutes, 45 seconds, is in the best pre-season form since he entered college. He has been running cross country for a month, and has his muscles ready for the long grids for the season.

This athlete is Mount's hope in both the mile and half mile. Cope is out to lower his record in the mile, and expects to bring it down to 4 minutes, 30 seconds. He has yet to be beaten in a dual meet.

Cope, in his first intercollegiate year of competition last season, easily won his letter in cross country as well as track. He holds the record on the hilly Akron course in the five mile race of 25 minutes flat. He has never been beaten over the five mile course.

The annual inter-fraternity meet will be staged soon as the prelim to the regular season, and both Salem boys will participate. Yengling is a Senior, and Cope is a Junior.

COURT NEWS

Held For Non-Support

It was April 15, 1926, when Martha Hirtz of Salem, filed an affidavit in juvenile court against her then husband John Hirtz for non-support. The couple have three minor children, Ruth, Delores and John Hirtz. Before the warrant could be served on Hirtz, who then lived at 87 Franklin ave., Salem, Hirtz left the state.

He returned to Salem last Friday night after about a year's absence and was immediately arrested, and committed to the county jail at Lisbon in default of bond. Since the warrant was issued Mrs. Hirtz obtained a divorce and has married again, but still Hirtz is charged with the non-support of his minor children.

Orders Deed Delivered

The report of the commissioners has been confirmed in the partition action filed in common pleas court by John S. Rardon against William Mitcheson and others. The plaintiff in this case has elected to take the property at the appraised value, and the court has ordered a deed delivered to Rardon upon the payment of the money. A decree of distribution has also been ordered in this case.

Wants Transcripts

Assisting Prosecuting Atty. John E. Bauknecht today issued a general call for the immediate filing of transcripts from lower courts with Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine immediately.

Arsenals of Paris Packed With Powder

Paris, April 2.—Arsenals near Paris are reported to be choked with the largest supply of gunpowder stored in them in recent years, and their authorities are confronted with the danger of not having guards to safeguard it.

Civilians are employed "to keep the powder damp." Usually they are on duty eight hours a day but the tremendous quantity of explosives on hand is said to have caused the authorities to lengthen the watchmen's hour's without increasing salaries which run from $20 to $40 a month.

"ROSE-MARIE"

Jean Crawford and James Murray have the leading romantic roles in "Rose-Marie," the new screen production now being shown at the State. The supporting cast includes House Peters, Gibson Gowland, Creighton Hale, Polly Moran, George Cooper, Lionel Belmore, William Orlamond, Gertrude Astor, Ralph Yearsley and many others.

The stage play was adapted to the screen and produced for M-G-M by Lucien Hubbard, and is being presented on the screen with musical score by Rudolph Friml and Herbert Stothart.

Rose-Marie has never given her heart to any man; nor to Sergeant Malone of the Royal Mounted, who has asked her many times to marry him; nor to Etienne, the son of the post's most prominent citizen.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy cheeks—sparkling eyes—most women can have. Dr. F. M. Edwards for 20 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave his patients a substitute for calomel made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. Know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—now and then to keep fit. 15c, 30c and 60c.

"SILK LEGS"

Can women compete successfully with men as drummers on the road and at the same time retain their feminine charm?

This question is dealt with humorously in "Silk Legs," Fox Film's screen version of Frederica Sagor's fascinating story of Atlantic City, featuring Madge Bellamy, which is at the Grand.

Ruth Stevens is a very successful hosiery drummer until the advent of Phil Parker, twentieth century edition of the modern drummer, whose business methods play havoc with Ruth's orders.

Parker's methods are old but reliable. He believes in playing the female buyers, who fall for his line of salve. As for Ruth, she sells her wares on their merits.

"Can she compete against such odds?"

Miss Bellamy, the clever little comedienne, answers that question in "Silk Legs" in a manner that is sure to appeal to everyone.

A well-chosen cast supports Miss Bellamy, including James Hall, Joseph Cawthorn and Maude Fulton. Arthur Rosson directed the production.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, April 2.—Striking designs in sweaters have come out at a moment when it seemed almost impossible to find something new in the two-piece sports costume.

The latest novelty has a striped or figured body with sleeves in a plain color, sometimes of the same shade as the background of the sweater, but more often in a darker tone. Belts, usually in metal, are placed at almost the normal waistline. A new wide belt, the "zodiac," is used almost exclusively by Jane Regny and consists of oblong plates of nickel or brass, each engraved with one of the signs of the zodiac.

The dashing zig-zag designs introduced last year are still in evidence, as well as graded color schemes.

Visitors returning from St. Moritz after the winter Olympiad, report the most varied assortment of fascinating sports costumes ever seen in one spot. Everyone also comments upon the universal wearing of one adaptation or another of the practical "zip" fastening. Jumpers, jackets, trousers, boots, handbags, caps and even the wooten tights of the skaters displayed the "zip." There is every reason for its popularity, since it makes everything windtight and can be easily manipulated by the numb fingers.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

An April fool dinner dance is jolly for young people. The more foolish they are the greater the merriment. Invitations may be written on small gayly colored fool caps. The dinner hour should be set rather early—say 6.30, so that it is out of the way when the guests invited for dancing begin to arrive. Also, this gives time to prepare the late refreshments.

Decorations in paper are best and may include flower garlands, a wisdom tree for foolish ones, its blossoms consisting of foolish favors carefully tied on the branches, inexpensive but funny. Paper caps with bell tipped streamers may be hung in doorways, around the stairs and cozy corners, that will ring when swayed by the wind or touched by a passing hand. "Fools Paradise" is the corner fixed up to serve punch to the dancers and hands may be hung about with fingers pointing in its direction with the mysterious letters "F. P." printed on them.

Upon arrival each guest has a card pinned onto the shoulders bearing a funny quotation or saying, but they may not know what the people are laughing at until the hostess allows them to remove it and read for themselves. There should be at least one foolish dance prearranged for which the music and tempo are changed so frequently that there is a general mix-up. Costumes designed to wear all evening should be as thin as possible for dancing is a warming exercise. Twin costumes are always funny; for instance, sun and show-ers children the sun all in yellow with a rayed headdress, rain in gray with rain hat, coat, goloshes and umbrella. When the umbrella is raised the sun has a veil to draw over its face. Modern Adam and

Eve, gold dust twins, Red Riding Hood and the wolf, Jack Spratt and his wife, Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee, or other well known couples are suggested.

THE GUMPS—THE ROYAL FAMILY

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

An April fool dinner dance is jolly for young people. The more foolish they are the greater the merriment. Invitations may be written on small gayly colored fool caps. The dinner hour should be set rather early—say 6.30, so that it is out of the way when the guests invited for dancing begin to arrive. Also, this gives time to prepare the late refreshments.

Decorations in paper are best and may include flower garlands, a wisdom tree for foolish ones, its blossoms consisting of foolish favors carefully tied on the branches, inexpensive but funny. Paper caps with bell tipped streamers may be hung in doorways, around the stairs and cozy corners, that will ring when swayed by the wind or touched by a passing hand. "Fools Paradise" is the corner fixed up to serve punch to the dancers and hands may be hung about with fingers pointing in its direction with the mysterious letters "F. P." printed on them.

Upon arrival each guest has a card pinned onto the shoulders bearing a funny quotation or saying, but they may not know what the people are laughing at until the hostess allows them to remove it and read for themselves. There should be at least one foolish dance prearranged for which the music and tempo are changed so frequently that there is a general mix-up. Costumes designed to wear all evening should be as thin as possible for dancing is a warming exercise. Twin costumes are always funny; for instance, sun and show-ers children the sun all in yellow with a rayed headdress, rain in gray with rain hat, coat, goloshes and umbrella. When the umbrella is raised the sun has a veil to draw over its face. Modern Adam and

Eve, gold dust twins, Red Riding Hood and the wolf, Jack Spratt and his wife, Tweedle Dum and Tweedle Dee, or other well known couples are suggested.

STEFANSSON ON MEAT DIET SAYS IT GIVES POWER

Has Been Subsisting On All Meat Rations For Two-Week Period

New York, April 2. — Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Arctic explorer, has been subsisting for two weeks on a 100 per cent meat diet.

"It's O. K.—for me at any rate," he said at the end of the twenty-third day.

In fact, he "felt a little more energetic" than when he started.

Stefansson has been eating nothing but meat for so long a period for the purpose of scientific demonstration. The experiment was conducted by the Russell Sage Institute of Pathology as a part of extensive study of diets which it has been carrying on for the past fifteen years. The institute wanted information on the effects of an exclusive meat diet on head production and blood pressure.

Gains Weight
Karsten Anderson, who accompanied Stefansson on many of his Arctic expeditions, went him one better. He has been living on nothing but meat for nearly two months. At the end of that time Anderson reported no change in his physical well-being.

"I gained a few pounds, but I was otherwise unaffected," said Anderson.

The experiments were conducted in New York City. The diet consists of steak, roast beef and tongue. Cal's liver was prescribed once a week.

"I'm convinced that the meat diet is an excellent one, but I would not recommend it for every one," said Stefansson. "It would be too expensive. The meat of various kinds which I have been consuming is equivalent to three sirloin steaks, and might cost $5 and $6 a day at current restaurant prices."

No Harmful Results
Stefansson said he wanted to prove to skeptical vegetarians that he could live on an all-meat diet in New York's temperate climate with out harmful results. He remarked that the meat-eating Eskimos usually die of old age or injuries and that as a rule they are well-built, neither thin nor fat.

While Anderson gained weight, Stefansson lost five pounds. When Stefansson started on his meat diet he felt lackadaisical about getting up in the morning. Now, he said, he "feels like jumping out of bed and getting to work."

Stefansson and Anderson planned to continue the meat diet indefinitely. The experiment is in charge of a committee of twelve physicians, headed by Professor Raymond Pearl, of John Hopkins. The committee found no evidence in Stefansson of high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, kidney trouble or other ailments attributed to meat eating by some doctors. Anderson was also found to be in good physical condition.

Four Wheel Brakes Of Hydraulic Type Added to Chryslers

Announcement that four wheel brakes of the hydraulic type are now available for Chrysler cars of the '52' model has been received from the Chrysler Sales Corporation by Smith's garage.

The addition makes the Chrysler "52" one of the lowest priced cars in the world provided with hydraulic four-wheel brakes according to J. W. Frazer, Chrysler sales manager.

"Chrysler-Lockheed hydraulic four-wheel brakes have been an outstanding factor in the popularity of all our six cylinder cars ever since their introduction," says Mr. Frazer, "and we regard their extension to the '52' as one of the striking examples of the advantages of Chrysler's manufacturing methods.

The Chrysler-Lockheed system is simplicity itself. Chrysler engineers point out. No lubrication is necessary. There are no rods, springs or clevises, and no mechanical equalizers.

The fluid which operates the brakes is contained in the cylinders and brake lines; a reserve supply is carried in a small tank which is connected to the master cylinder. Pressure on the foot pedal is transmitted in full force to the brakes through the liquid in the cylinder and lines.

DEATH TO SEAL OLD SECRET OF 'HELL BENDERS'

Believe Colonel Hanged Entire Family Which Killed Visitors

Denver, April 2.—The mystery of what became of the "Hell Benders," probably can never be solved as the result of the death here of Col. A. M. York, who was instrumental in bringing about the downfall of the multiple murderers.

The "Hell Benders" composed of John Bender, Sr., his wife, John Bender, Jr., and a mysterious daughter Kate lived on a farm in Kansas. Whenever a traveler stopped with them he usually was never seen again. Col. York's story also verified by Edmund Pearson in a book of notorious murders of the early days, disclosed that his brother, Dr. William H. York, of Independence Mo., left his home on horseback for Fort Scott, Kan., the home of the Colonel.

Never Seen Again
When Dr. York reached the home of the Benders, he stopped for the night. This fact was proven by neighbors along the road who had talked with Dr. York before he stopped.

Dr. York was never seen alive again. The Colonel, believing the Benders guilty of foul play, started an investigation. He was led astray by information furnished by John Bender, Jr., that bandits had been seen in the neighborhood and that they had shot at several people. Col. York investigated, but found no trace of any bandits.

When he returned to the home of the Benders, the place had been deserted. Then he knew he was on the right track. He, with twelve men, searched the premises and found a trap door in the floor of the kitchen.

Cellar Graves

Underneath was a dark cellar and a street tunnel leading to a sunken garden where Dr. York's and ten other bodies were found buried.

Immediately, the men, led by Col. York, set out in search of the Bender family. When they returned, all were silent as to either their success or failure. Other than a great number of knowing glances cast by members of the "law enforcers," no one had ever said a word concerning the fate of the Bender family. It was generally believed that Col. York and his men hung the entire Bender crew. Col. York was the last to die of the party. He was 91 years old.
